My deepest sympathy on the loss of Barbara. She was my mother's cousin (Mary Sullivan Bourque) and my grandmother's niece. I have many pictures of her from my mother's wedding and as children.
My mother passed in 2008.
She spoke fondly of her childhood memories with her cousin who was her maid of honor at her wedding

Dear Amy and Family,
I really enjoyed the time I spent with Barbara. I loved her spunk and outgoing personality. It was clear how much she loved all of you.
Sincerely,

Barbara will be missed by her familty and friends. Her love for family goes above and beyond. She adored her daughter, son-in-law and grandchildren. She will be deeply missed, and a void is in the family, that can never be replaced. Rest in Peace Barbara. God loves you best.
