As a fellow Estimator I had the pleasure of working with Charles over the many years that he was employed here at Explus. Before his move to Florida Charles & I worked shoulder to shoulder on many Projects. We solicited, gave, & received each other's advice on countless issues.

Charles liked to start work very early in the morning. So it was many a day that I would arrive at 8:00 AM to be greeted by his beaming smile as I walked past his office.

I learned a lot from Charles, we worked very hard together, but it's that smile that I will miss the most.
