My deepest sympathies to Mrs. Jackson and to Matthew and Grant as well as the other members of the Jackson family.

I am privileged to know Matthew and through him to have shared Mr. Jackson's struggles over the last few years.

I prayed that Christ would take Mr. Jackson to His heavenly abode Easter Sunday to be with Him forever.

May God be with you and comfort you during these dark days and bring you through to the light of His contenance.

With deep sympathy

Our deepest sympathy to Margaret, Grant and Matt. We have know the Jackson family for over thirty years. We love them all. To this day, Paul Jackson has been one of the kindest, most gentle and loving man that we have ever been blessed to have known. He will be missed by all of us.
May he rest in peace.

Kap and I felt that Paul was the perfect Southern Gentleman. He was kind and generous, concerned about others; true and faithful in every way. We are glad we got to know Paul and Margaret better after they moved into Heritage Hunt. We feel privileged to have known him.
