“ Dwight was the kind of guy who was never quite understood because people are too cynical and couldn't figure out how someone could always be so happy. Dwight worked with me many years ago at Magruders of Fairfax and we always had stories to share that would keep us laughing. For many years you couldn't go into Denny's in Manassas after 12 midnight on Friday or Saturday night without seeing him sitting at the bar. Hopefully wherever he is in heaven he is sitting at a bar in Denny's greeting all of his old friends and the new ones who will come to see him one day! Rest easy Dwight and I will see you again someday!

Dwight was a man that "never met a stranger". He was always out and about in Manassas. I remember, I was out with my mom and dad at a restaurant. He always said, "Hello"! After my mom passed he would ask my dad, "How was he feeling? Dwight was always a bright spot in your day. Those of us who were lucky enough to know him, were the lucky ones. He always seemed to treat everyone as though they had been friends forever. I know he took his parents passing, so hard. He is now reunited with his mom and dad.

I want to share a true story about my neighbor, Reba who was having dinner at Great American Buffet. She had gone there with three ladies. Dwight was there, too. He sat close to their booth and being Dwight, started a conversation with these ladies. He heard Reba say that she would love some cotton candy. When she went to the register, Dwight was there with her cotton candy.....such a good heart.

“ I didn't know Dwight very well. I spoke to him on many occasions though. Dwight was that kind of person you want everyone to be. A kind soul and a caring individual. My regards go out to his family and may he have many more great moments above!

“ Colleen and Sharon,

I'm so very sorry to hear of Dwight's passing. He and I went to high school together, and became reacquainted about four years ago. He was quite a character -- and a talker! I was always amazed at how easily he could strike up a conversation with just about anyone he encountered. When I moved to Florida last year, he and I would speak on the phone frequently. Although Dwight faced some challenges in this life, he was a kind soul. He brought smiles to many people who were lucky enough to cross paths with him. I feel blessed to have been able to call him my friend. You and your families will be in my thoughts and prayers during this sad and difficult time.
