

Emily Grace Navarra

October 21, 2013 - April 15, 2020

Emily Grace Navarra, age 6, passed away on Wednesday, April 15, 2020 at her home in Gainesville, VA.

She was born on October 21, 2013 in Manassas, VA to Bryan Richard and Christina Marie (Earley) Navarra.

Emily was a ray of sunshine and an absolute blessing to anyone who met her. She had an infectious personality that was just contagious. She fought a long, hard four year battle against brain cancer. She fought hard through it all and kept a smile on her face the entire time. She is exemplary of what a good hearted person should be.

Emily is survived by her mother Christina Navarra, her father Bryan Navarra, her brothers Christopher Lawson, Ryan Navarra and Liam Navarra. She is also survived by her grandparents, aunts and uncles, cousins and countless other relatives.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be held at a later date, as well as a memorial service.

Flowers are welcome but donations to St Jude Children's Research Hospital in honor of Emily are also welcome. St Jude was like a second home to Emily.

“ Oh Em. I don't even know where to start. You were the first niece I ever had and you set the bar so high. Every time I saw you, you would greet me with the biggest smile and hug. You were so silly, sassy, and full of life, even when you weren't feeling well. This picture is the last time I ever held you in my arms and I will cherish it forever. We will miss you tremendously, but I know you're in a better place and hanging with Uncle Ryan. That makes me smile. You're our borrowed angel and heaven is so lucky to have you. Fly high baby girl. Always and forever in our hearts.

“ My heart is broken. She has changed my life and countless others. If there is anyone in the world that I look up to it would be her. She had so much strength, courage and happiness even in her darkest days. I love you Emily. Watch over you Mom, Dad and brothers. They're going to need you near. Fly high baby girl, fly free..... until we meet again.
