“ Jake had a funny way of making any situation hilarious and memorable; Even has a child I remember him clearly in any memory. He was a force to be reckoned with & his entire being demanded remembrance.

Never in my wildest dreams did I ever think I would have to write a note such as this, but here I am, and here you are, feeling the same grief and heartbreak.

Something that I know to be true is Jake will never truly be gone, he will live on forever in our minds and hearts; every time we speak his name, every time we tell a story or a memory of our time with him, or every time our hearts ache for the person we know and love, his soul is here and he lives on.

Sending love and light and a huge warm hug to my aunt Denny, I wish I would be there with you now, but I know my mom is taking good care of you. You are one of the strongest woman I know, and it shows through your entire being.

All my love,
Dessy Lou
