“ Kathy showed me the ropes at NAL over 10 years ago. The instant I sat down on my first day and asked what to do, I knew she was a special lady. Humor was her power and it motivated me. So much knowledge of life and the day to day was always given whether you liked it or not. I learned so much from her and will carry on and try to help others the same way but it won't be the same. I will love and cherish our time together making jokes, talking about things in life, yet all the while having the best interest of others. Thank you Kathy!!

“ It doesn't seem real that you're not here anymore.

I'd give anything to go yard sale shopping with you again.

Those really early (to me) trips to Wal-mart.

Singing karaoke with you and the neighbors all night long.

Walking on the battlefield.

Holidays won't be the same. Life won't be the same.

You didn't deserve half the things life threw at you but you're the only woman that could take all of that on and still crack a joke at the end of the day.

There won't be a day that goes by that I don't think of you. I'll make sure my children know how special and strong you always were.

I love & miss you so much.

xoxo

“ Mom,

Please give me strength to make it through. I'm so broken without you. I'm starting to see things that remind me so much of you.

Thank you for fighting so hard. I know you did it for us. No more pain, no more nausea. That does give me peace.

I love you more than you'll ever know.

Love,

Lauren
