

Margaret Alverda Ramsay-Mitchell

June 17, 1950 - April 17, 2020

Margaret Alverda Ramsay-Mitchell, AKA “Sis/Maggie/Mamaw” Born in Arlington to Robert Samuel Mitchell and Rebecca Powers-Mitchell on June 17th 1950, she passed away peacefully in her sleep where she resided with her daughter, on Friday, April 17th 2020. She is survived by her son, Robert “Steve” Springs, daughter, Brandi Springs-Langeneck, her grandchildren: Steven Springs, Tiffany Staples, Jamie Springs, Kolton Langeneck, Jordan Springs and a step-grandson: Austin Langeneck; She had one great grandson “Mikey”. As well as her last two surviving brothers: Don and Hop Mitchell.

She was the only girl born of her parents Bob & Becky Mitchell, who most may remember from the Junk Yard Days in Yorkshire Virginia , she went home to meet our Heavenly Father and reunite with so many, that she loved so dearly, and missed on the daily as she carried on without them.....patiently yet eagerly awaiting her day to be with them all again; her Mommy and Daddy who her heart longed for Ohhh so much,...her brothers who had made it home before her, she never left their bedside upon their departure of this world, as she dreaded the day she would have to sit alongside her last 2 of the living. So off to dance with the Mitchell Boys in Heaven, she will most likely grab George first, Charlie, Bobby, and dance the best of the Jitterbug with Wallace.

She truly couldn't wait to see the many nieces and nephews who to had passed through the gates, I know that Chuck will be trampling down over many Angels to get to his Aunt Sissy's hand and I know how much all of the others could relate, yet let it be known that even though all the commotion of Moms journey Home, good Ole Orvie still standing in line, looking over the shoulders of everyone with a smile and distant wave to her ~ saying Welcome Pretty Girl , Bet ya didn't think you'd see me here Margaret, yet I knew you wouldn't be long

So, Welcome Home~!

Mom, you have given so much and asked for so little in return. Thank you for always being there for us, for teaching us, listening to us, helping and forgiving us, loving us, and always, always paving the way for us. We will work hard to reach the standard you set as we have big shoes to fill, so we will just say for now, Farewell Our Sweet & Beautiful Momma, we will meet you there to when he says it's our time and his will. You were simply a magnificent Mom, in our and our children's eyes and We know you never doubted our Love for you, We've Loved you tenderly ALL our lives. Know, that we know you are with us, each and every day we rise. Your love was unconditional Mom and You taught us all too well on how to survive, just as you taught us to love our family, friends and neighbors with all our hearts throughout this life. All who knew you, they could tell, and for all who had the honor to know and meet you, you left their hearts surreal and sound. You took in our countless friends even those of our children, Mom we hope you really know all the hearts & lives that your love and touch impacted! Until that someday comes Mommy~ We Love & Miss You

“ It was a 1st date with Steve. When he told me we were going to dinner I thought "O.K." when he told me his Mom and her friend were there, I took a deep breath and thought "Dont make a fool of your self Lynn." We went to Mike's Diner. When we arrived Maggie and her friend were already seated. The waiter brought a basket of bread and drinks. So far so good! IDK why he brought 2 or 3 rolls for 4 people, but this was it. My test! Maggie grabbed a roll, broke a piece off and handed it to her friend, her friend did the same and handed it to Steve, Steve did the same and handed it to me...to which I immediatley put my hand up and said "No thanks" Maggie looked at me with that half cocked smile (trying to be serious) and said laughing " What, are you too good to eat after us?" There was a moment of awkward silence, I didnt know what to say, then we all started laughing. Our dinner conversations were always very open. No topic off limits. I could tell her anything and if I didnt tell her she didnt mind asking. Sex, work, my son, friends, she knew everything about me. She made me feel comfortable and loved. She had a way of making every person around her feel special. Even though the relationship with Steve didnt work out she made a conscious effort to keep me in her life. She was special. I'll miss her laughter and the sound of her voice. To this day whenever I smell cinnamon I think of the condo in Springfield. I love you Maggie. I'll miss you horribly. Thank you for the wonderful memories.

“ We remember her very well. Although I was younger, she always treated me so nice. My parents, John and Joyce Fisher, were very close friends to the Mitchell family. Great memories at the "Junk Yard" all those years ago. Thoughts and prayers for the family.

“ Oh Aunt Margaret, so much going through my mind thinking of you, and our childhood. Good times with family events, such things thst have come to pass....oh how I Remember that pretty blue dress you had got for me to take my 3rd grade school picture in. You fixed my long hair perfect, I thank you for that proud day as a child. Rest in peace, and say Hey to my Dad....All my Love Shitty Kay!

Sheila - April 22 at 06:18 PM

“ Margaret, my heart and soul, I miss you so. Hope you are continuing to dance with the many partners that have met you so far. You'll never run out, there are so, so many that love you. So many lives you have impacted, including my own, Your heart and ears to listen and guide me through the raising of my boys, I needed you then, and you were always there. So many laughs and good times. It's been a fun life with you as such a very dear friend. The imprint you etched into my heart will forever be my own, and I am thankful for that. We will all miss your smile, love and hugs. My heart is aching for your sweet children, but know this, I'm here for them, always. I promised, and I know it won't be there beloved Momma, but I'll do my very best. I love you, your family, and the knowing that we'll be all together again. Forever .....

“ Thank you so much Cheryl, mom had to be smiling down on us the other day as Brandi , koni
You and myself were all together setting on the blanket. Remembering her. We love you Cheryl.

Steve - April 22 at 07:30 PM

“ She sure was! Cheryl, I'm glad that I had grown Sooo close to you especially these last few years. Mommy must have known how much I would have needed you, so she assigned you to take over from here, I never had a doubt it'd be you lady, and we will be fine because she'll forever be near. Thank you Cheryl for honoring her and your promise to always be here, that says A Lot about Our Mom, especially if she chose you for the one, to keep a good eye on her Babies, it just means she felt good in her decision in order For her to move on. Thank you Cheryl for stepping in to take my hand the day my amazing mommy went home. I love you so so much ~ and you Know undeniably, she loved you deep within her Beautiful Soul!
