“ I am heart broken as I sit here writing this. I still can't wrap my head around this news. I am so sorry for the loss of such a wonderful man, way too early in life. He was always such a sweet person. I remember hanging out during choir practice at church Before we were old enough to join the choir, or playing cards and air hockey on our youth group camp outs. Matt was a great person and will be greatly missed.

“ Have so many memories of college with Matt as my husband's fraternity brother and a dear friend. Even a few spring breaks and a ski trip in there with a few of us are weaving in. He was such a sweet guys. Tender hearted. Kind. Empathetic. Such a shock to see him gone. I am so very sorry for tour family. You are in my prayers.

“ To Matt's family and friends, I'm so very sorry for your loss. It's such sad news to hear. He was a really nice guy who seemed to care so much about lasting friendships. My husband and I met with him and Mike a couple years ago when we were all in Key West and had a really nice night of catching up, learning about what each other were doing, and enjoying some drinks and great conversation. My condolences to all.

“ Matt had such a kind and loving heart. In college he always watched out for my sisters and me. He was available for a hug, chat or a walk through the scary alley to get snacks at 7-11. Sending love and strength to his family.

“ I am numb, I am in a state of shock, I am broken, I am hurting. We were texting Saturday, Saturday just a few days ago. You needed an updated letter of recommendation for another school. We started out together at Starbucks and we watched each other grow, stumble, get back up and march forward. I am so lost right now, I have a huge hole in my heart. I will miss you every day! Rest easy my love rest easy! Love always Jen

Jennifer Foster - July 23 at 06:24 PM

“ Matt, you were such a huge part of my life growing up. I have so many memories that involve you. We crossed paths a few times after high school. Finally, you came back here to follow your heart and attend law school. And we got to spend time together, but not enough. There is a giant hole left here on earth with you gone. Rest In Peace my friend. I will miss you until we meet again. Love you

Angela Lambert - July 23 at 05:21 PM

“ I literally grew up next to Matthew in the front row at NUMC recording our moms singing in the choir every week! Fast forward "a few years" & he knew my name at Starbucks as I ordered. We picked up right where we had left off. So glad I got to pick him up from DCA "recently" and bring him home! We will always be close. I love you, Matt. Pam & Al, Don & Nathan, thinking of you all so much right now.

“ Matt was an amazing individual. He had such a great sense of humor and a laugh that is permanently etched in my memory. From skating trips to Hugo's, fifth grade camping trip, drama club, weekend trips to Kings Dominion, concerts, and marching band - Matt was a huge part of my childhood. His close friendship shaped my life in such a deep and positive way. I will continue to remember and hear his voice in my head and be a better person because of him.

“ Pam and Al, we are very sorry for your loss. We both liked Matthew a lot. Donna's daughter Robyn was Matthew's age, and they grew up in church together, participating in MYF activities. I had opportunities to work with Matthew in various church projects when he was a young adult. He was an exceptional man and we will both miss him.
