“ Dear Rick and Family,
We are at a loss for words and our hearts break with sadness, but we know that this treasure is with God and she walks with the angels. Sharon had such strength and optimism and a heart full of love and generosity. Our memories of this gentle soul will be forever in our minds. I will think back on quiet days spent with her, on thoughtful discussions, encouraging words and listening to classical music (a fellow pianist). Gary and Keoni will always remember the afternoons of running past Ms. Sharon, as she waves to them while she tends to her front lawn/garden. She was a wonderful neighbor and friend. We are so blessed and ever so grateful to have known her. “Aloha ‘Oe dearest one, until we meet again”.

With caring thoughts and our deepest sympathy,
The Puheks

“ I worked with Rick at Ramstein, Germany. Sharon was a dear friend often watching over Stacy and my daughter playing as best friends.
She was surely a loving, sweet person. Our prayers to all the family.

“ Sharon was more than a dear friend, she was my guardian angel. She helped me in countless ways, as a new mom at Ramstein Air Force Base, always there for whatever the need. We shared baking treats, hers were much better! We shared adventures, driving to Belgium on the autoban late at night to no avail! She was an inspiration as a loving mom, supportive wife, and most of all a strong Christian. Her home was always open to anyone, you could feel the love and warm friendship surrounding you.

I could never understand why she had to suffer so much in this life. But maybe all her suffering was the sacrifice offered so that others would not feel so much pain in their lives.

My prayers and thoughts are with each of you, Rick and entire family. She was so proud and loved you immensely.

“ My Aunt Sharon was the most gentle, loving and forgiving people I have known in my life. If you were playing against her in a board game, basketball or cards, those were the times you could see the wild animal in her. She was always the best and toughest opponent you could ever face.

As a little girl I remember being in awe of the items she would sew and craft for us. Sharon and Stacy would have matching dresses at some of our family gatherings. I loved seeing what she had made each time we got together.

Sharon was also an amazing cook! Oh my goodness, AMAZING! She baked and made things that would make your taste buds sing. The pies, oh the yummy pies! I have tried to make some of the items, but they just don't have the same magic touch. Coconut Balls were on the request list today. She made dozens of these for us during the holidays. Did you know you have to dip each ball one by one?! When Sharon was in the kitchen she made it all look so easy. I will keep practicing until I get better, but something tells me she will always make the best.

When I was about 13, I made some stupid choices and got in trouble. As I sat there in the Police Station, handcuffed to a pole, terrified, and regretting all the stupidity. Sharon came in with the most forgiving look on her face. I broke inside and felt so much comfort all at the same time. I remember this feeling deep in my soul and it has stayed with me, like an Angel on my shoulder.

You have always loved me beyond measure and without any restriction or judgment. Thank you for all the wonderful memories and most of all your amazing love! You will be terribly missed by all. We love you!

Love,
Brooke
