“ Aunt Sharon had the most beautiful, insightful eyes and soul. I loved visiting her when she was at work. She was such a great listener and smiled and laughed at my silly stories. She gave me great advice. After losing Shane, I always felt as though a big chunk of her heart went with him. There was a hint of loneliness and sadness that never left from that moment. We shared our love of gardening and I always admired her beautiful azaleas. Aunt Sharon was my favorite aunt because she was beautiful inside and out and I will always treasure my time I had with her. Rest In Peace sweet Aunt Sharon. I love you.
