“ When I first met Suzanne, I thought this woman is a hoot! We went on many ladies retreats over the years and she would always tell the funniest stories, like the day her and Jeff got married, on Christmas Eve on Jeff's lunch hour from work. The way she would tell it would be so funny. Jeff is from Southwest Virginia and she was a northern. She told us so many stories of Jeff taking her down south and well you can just imagine. Then there was the story of Suzanne on a business trip around Easter time, and she fell asleep in the motel with a chocolate bunny in the bed. She woke up to find it melted all over the sheets. I've known Suzanne over 20 years, maybe 25. She also volunteered to monogram things for me whenever I needed it. She loved to sew and all the neat things she could make. She loved a good road trip and stopping at little lunch places all over Virginia. Her and Jeff also loved going to church and singings and would always show up wherever there was a singing going on. And oh my how she loved them grandbabies! She loved to make everything fun! I will miss her dearly!

“ Suzanne was a wonderful Sister in Christ. Always had a ready smile and words of thanksgiving and encouragement. She will be missed by so many. But she is with the Savior, and there are no goodbyes for God's children, only "Until we meet again".
