“ A friendship that has been truly special for 50 + years started in 1964 between the Utterbacks's and Hansen's.

It is probably not coincidence to realize that A. Henry Utterback was born on the day that Canada turned 65 on July 1, 1932.

Even though the distance and miles between Va / W. Va and Canada has changed many times over the past fifty years, the lines of communication via telephone, snail mail and email kept the bonds connected regarding the lives of both families and children / grandchildren.

On behalf of Ray and Eva, Russ, Richard and Deborah, we want you to know how blessed and enriched our lives have been to call Henry and Mary friends.

As you are aware we are dealing with challenges here right now as well and the Christmas season makes it very difficult to travel.

However that does not diminish our thoughts and prayers being sent your way.

Henry was a true Southern Gentleman. His humor, competitiveness and love of family were traits to truly admire. As well Henry's ability to rally over traumatic accidents and illness with such resiliency time and time again was astounding.

May God Bless and comfort you at this difficult time.

Love
