“ Aaron brought such joy to our school. My morning was not complete until I heard Aaron cheerfully shouting my name across the NET and asking for a hug. He gave the best hugs. He was a joy to work with and he will be greatly missed.

“ Dear Mr. & Mrs. Kisha,
The world is a better place because Aaron was in it. I had the pleasure of seeing his smiling face whenever I went over to Aurora from my office on the campus, and he made my day, each and every time. He was a very special boy and he will never be forgotten. My you find peace and comfort knowing that he touched all of us.

“ Aaron was my first student when I worked at the Aurora School. I remember sharing three wonderful years working with Aaron. I remember sharing birthday parties for Aaron at the school with Mrs. Kisha famous rice crispy treats and Aaron's smile when school would sing happy birthday to him and how his face would light up with happiness.

“ Aaron is a joyful soul and the world is truly a better place for having him in it, even if for only a short time. I miss his greetings from across the parking lot - he was my first "Hey, Heather" every morning. I strive to be as happy as he was everyday. He knew true happiness - we should all be so lucky!

“ Aaron had a passion and love for life like no one I have ever known. For five years he brightened my days with his smiles, laughter, and excitement. I enjoyed working with him and starting my mornings with his exuberant greetings of " Hi Michelle." For those of us who had the absolute privilege of knowing him, you know what I mean by this. Aaron will always remain in my heart and my sympathy is extended to all who knew and loved him, especially his family. He is now a heavenly angel, free to spread his wings and shine his spirit upon those of us in mourning. You were a blessing every day Aaron.

“ Linda Kisha is one of the most amazing examples of Christ that I have ever met on this earth. she has helped my family with meals when I've been on chemo and she means so very much to me. I wanted to take this opportunity to let her know.what a blessing she is to me. due to sickness, I was unable to attend the service.

“ I will never forget seeing Aaron come out of his very first day of school at Coles Elem. He looked so frail and I was afraid of his 'condition'. After just a few days of being with him, he really lit up my days! I loved that little boy so much! I also remember Aaron getting in the drivers seat of the bus and playing with the buttons. He was really going somewhere! Then came that fateful day...he found the horn. Aaron made sure EVERYONE knew he was there! May God bless you, Aaron. I know you are happy where you are, still free to be the Aaron only you can be. Mr. and Mrs. Kisha, Michelle, I want to thank you for letting me be just a small part of Aarons short life. May God bless you and your entire family. You are truly wonderful people.
