“ I will always unconditionally love aiden so much he was my soulmate, my true love. We had plans to get married, have children, travel the world together. We had had so many dreams of our future together and its leaves me broken knowing I have to go on without him. My sweet honey bunny baby. He will always be in our hearts. He was such a kind sweet heart down to earth person and so funny, he was my only comfort in this cruel world and I will miss the way he made me feel I was so happy with him. And I will always remember and love him he will always be my true love. And I love his dear mother Melissa.

“ It truly breaks my heart to hear of the passing of Aiden. Aiden and my son were classmates in Elementary and Middle School. He brightened so many of our days when he would come to our home to visit with his funny sense of humor and silly antics. And he would also eat and enjoy my food which I appreciated. :) I will always fondly remember his kindness and the joy he brought to those around him. My prayers are with your family during this heartbreaking time. I am sorry for your loss and the loss to many who loved him.
