“ I will re-unite him with his family in Australia. His brothers, sisters and mother. That was his last wish. To be reborn with his family. I miss him and love him very much. May you live happily in heaven. i will always remember how you were always there for me. Wished to see you attend my graduation next year. You will always be in my heart.

“ I wish to see him for the last time. I was planning to have him live with my husband and I once he goes back to the US after he finishes Pharmacy School to take care of him. I regret he passed so soon. May he reborn again and be with his family.
