“ Rosa, you know that we were so happy that you found someone that loved and respected you. Al was such a happy, easy-going person that everyone got along with.

I remember when you both came down to San Antonio and we went to the wedding. Al made us laugh when they started playing "disco music" and Lisa was saying how much she loved disco music and Al say "me too." Then he went down to the dance floor and started dancing disco with Lisa. We were all laughing seeing him swaying his hips and raising his hand and point his finger in the air(in the disco fashion).

Al was a wonderful, joyful person that brightened everyone's life that crossed his path.

We will all miss him.
