

Alberto Martinez

August 7, 1961 - July 31, 2022

Alberto “Albert” Martinez, age 60, beloved father, son, brother and uncle, passed away peacefully on July 31, 2022. He was a native of northern New Jersey. After graduating high school, Albert joined the United States Air Force where he worked as a medical technician. After leaving the Air Force he worked for several years at Cablevision. He later continued his education and graduated as a surgical technician. He was a history buff, who loved reading, watching movies, was a huge fan of Star Wars and Jeopardy as well as his beloved NY Mets and San Francisco 49ers.

Albert was a kind, smart and loving person who has touched many people’s lives and will be sorely missed by his friends and family. We are comforted knowing he rests in peace and will forever keep him in our hearts.

Albert was preceded in death by his father, Gerardo and his brother Luis “Tito”. Albert is survived by his daughter, Aileen, mother, Mirta, brother Gerry, his sister, Luisa, brother-in-law Eric, his nephews Bryant , Xavier, Tyler, Austin and Nicholas and his favorite dog Tanner.

“ I will never forget Albert. He was smart, talented, nice, and funny. He got me into the things I'm into today and I couldn't be more thankful. I will never forget him and the ways he told his jokes. He will be missed, but not forgotten.

Your Little Buddy,
Nicholas
