“ I can't be there on the 29th but want to share how impressed I was by how fiercely Lee loved and protected her family, especially Tara. She was a mother first, before everything else. You did well, Lee; Tara inherited your fierce Mama-ness.

To: Tara, Pam, Mom C, and Billy, and the rest of the family, I am so sorry for your loss. I'll continue to hold you in my thoughts.

*Xo,

I meet Lee and Tara when they lived in NSB Florida when Tara was around 3 or 4 yrs old. Lee's name was used for my youngest daughter "Aletha Layne". We always had done much fun and did a lot of things together till they moved back to Virginia. I will love and miss you so much lee but ur in a better place. Much love to you 🥺❤️❤️
