

Alex P. Schrecengost

January 10, 1954 - July 2, 2023

Alex P. Schrecengost (Butch), 69, of Manassas Park, VA, passed away at his home on July 2, 2023, after a lengthy illness. He was born on January 10, 1954, in Moon Run, Pennsylvania.

Alex had an easy-going personality and was known for his kindness, helpfulness and generosity. He handled his illness with strength, grace and courage.

Alex retired from The Davey Tree Expert Company due to his illness. He was a skilled handyman and could make minor home repairs with ease. In his free time, he enjoyed listening to Elton John songs and spending quality time with his loving wife, Kathy. He liked classic cars and attending classic car shows. He enjoyed watching professional bull riding as well as action, drama, and horror movies.

Alex will be deeply missed by his beloved spouse of 35 years, Kathleen D. Schrecengost (Kaymark), and his siblings Gary Schrecengost (Sandy), Darrel Schrecengost (Audrey), David Schrecengost (Sherry), and Ilona Schrecengost Rodgers (Gary). He is also survived by several nieces and nephews, great-nieces and nephews, and great-great-nieces and nephews.

Alex was preceded in death by his mother, Shirley M. Schrecengost, his father, Alex H. Schrecengost, Jr., and his brother, Douglas Schrecengost (Eileen).

The family kindly requests that those who knew and loved Alex indulge in his favorite foods, such as steak, hamburgers, pizza, parsley potatoes, chocolate chip cookies, ice cream and chocolate candy especially Reese's peanut butter cups in his memory.

Contributions can be made to the Lung Cancer Research Foundation or the GO2 Foundation for Lung Cancer. These organizations focus on advancing research and supporting individuals and their families affected by this disease.

Please keep Alex and his family in your thoughts and prayers during this difficult time.

*Not sure if the family knew me as "Mary"! It's Mary Rose, Uncle Bill Schrec's youngest and 1st cousin to Butchie. Oh the memories from so long ago. Every Sunday growing up would be the big family gatherings at Grandma "Schrec's" house at 80 Moon Run Rd.! There were so many 1st cousins, I think 36 of us?? But many would gather on Sunday's early on. Cousin Butchie was one of those guys who made you laugh!! He was always so happy-go-lucky and always in a good mood. Although it had been many, many years since I had seen him, I have nothing but good memories of him and those days at grandma and grandpap's!
My deepest sympathy to all. Sending love, hugs and prayers...*

“ I had the pleasure of first meeting Alex at my wedding. While he and Dave Larabee chatted up a conversation before the wedding began, they happened to see my brother patiently waiting alone and decided to strike up a conversation with him. Somewhere in the middle of that conversation, Alex inquired if my brother might be the groom. My brother, being the prankster, replied 'yes' and that he was very nervous. He carried on this charade for a while before Alex finally caught on and said, "wait a minute, you're not the groom!" He, Dave, and my brother got a big laugh out of it. My bother recanted that story to me later when I greeted both Alex and Dave. What a kind guy, Alex was. Calmness resided in him. Although, I had not seen him in many years, the thought of him will remain with me.

Sincerely, Gaylen & Linda
