“ A friend just informed that Alex had died many years ago. I do not want to bring up painful memories but did want you to know that for nearly 7 years I thought of Alex as my big brother. He lived with us from the time he was in 7th grade until he was a senior. I saw him once as adult when he stopped by my Mom's. Both my parents are dead so I know that even those the years pass, we still miss our parents. So my deepest sympathy in the loss of Alex.
