

Alexander Kenji Campbell

August 17, 2020 - January 19, 2025

Alexander Kenji Campbell was born August 17, 2020, to Jonathon and Adrianna Campbell. Alexander, "also known as "Alex", "Kenji", and "Son-Son", was a bright light. Alex had a strong name. He was his name. Alexander means "protector of men" and "defender of people". Kenji (in Japanese) means "Intelligent Second Son", "strong and vigorous" and "wise, peaceful, and healing".

Alex loved to dance and sing. He was exuberant! He was charming and was known as a "ladies' man", loved by all. He was a kind soul and was never sad. He was a hugger. Alex loved playing with dinosaurs and trucks, and enjoyed all types of food, especially his dad's homemade chicken tenders, rice krispies treats and fruit, which were his favorite snacks.

Alex loved his siblings, especially his older sister who was like his twin. They were two peas in a pod. They were each other's protectors and friends.

Alexander is survived by his parents, Jonathon and Adrianna Campbell, and his seven siblings.
