“ Dear Family: We, the families of The Compassionate Friends, send you our heartfelt condolences. The Compassionate Friends is an international grief support group for parents, grandparents and siblings who have suffered the heartbreaking loss of a child. Our only mission is to provide comfort, hope and support to every family experiencing the death of a son or daughter, brother or sister, or grandchild, and to help others better assist the grieving family. We meet monthly in Manassas from 7:30-9 PM on the third Tuesday of each month at Buckhall United Methodist Church, 10251 Moore Drive, Manassas, VA 20111. If and when you are ready to do so, please join us. We Need Not Walk Alone. We are The Compassionate Friends.

“ One word that always comes to mind when I think about Alex is: SPIRIT.

I am grateful for the short time I spent with him while volunteering at Gravelly ES, playing football with him and his friends at recess, and chaperoning field trips. My family and I pray for your strength and healing. God bless. The Sawyers Family. Michael, Myra and George.

“ On behalf of the Rainey family we send our condolences, love, and prayers as you all go through this extremely difficult time. Here on earth Alex was Alex's Army and the strongest soldier we know but, today Alex joined God's Army. May Alex lift you up so that you may soar on his wings like angels. God bless.

Romans 8:38-39: "For I am sure that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor things present nor things to come, nor powers, nor height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord". Amen.
