“ My condolences to the family of my friend and colleague of the Customs Service. Al was wonderful. He was warm, funny, kind, and brilliant. It was a pleasure and honor to work with him and know him as a person and devoted family man. He was a patriot and loved the Customs Service where he devoted his life. I miss Al very much. God bless him and his family and those he loved and those who loved him.

“ Al will be greatly missed by all who knew & loved him. He was the nicest guy and extremely family oriented. He was an integral part of our family and always had concern & heartfelt emotion in times of illness. We had numerous special times spent with him & beautiful Auntie Ann. His generosity and love of extended family & friends was exuberant and always appreciated. He always made the room light up when he entered and his humor immediately took over. REST IN PEACE! You are Loved by ALL WHO KNEW YOU!
