

Alice Miller Bell

May 20, 1943 - May 29, 2014

Alice M. Bell, 71, of Hopewell Road, The Plains, passed away Thursday morning, May 29, 2014, at Novant Health Haymarket Medical Center.

Alice was born on May 20, 1943, in Jerome, VA, to the late Cletus Eugene Miller, Sr. and the late Eula Virginia Kohne Miller.

Alice was originally from the Shenandoah Valley and moved to Haymarket in 1957. She graduated from Osbourn High School in Manassas, VA. in 1961 and was a member of the Future Homemakers of America (FHA). She would marry her high school sweetheart, Philip Bell, and settle in Haymarket where they would raise their four children. After moving to The Plains in 1982, she would live out her life enjoying her family, especially her three grandchildren. Alice is survived by her husband of 52 years, Ralph Philip Bell; one son, Steve Bell of Front Royal; one daughter, Sarah Bell Williams of Linden; one grandson, Lucas Lang of Warrenton; two granddaughters, Sabrina Lang of Marshall and Shelby Bell of Linden; five sisters, two brothers, and numerous nephews and nieces. She was predeceased by a daughter, Sandra Bell Lang, in 2004, and a son, Stacey T. Bell, in 2011. She was anxiously awaiting the birth of her first great-grandchild, who is due August 16th.

Alice was a faithful member of Haymarket Baptist Church for many years but currently attended historic Antioch Baptist Church in Waterfall. Alice was a member of the Haymarket Woman's Club where she served as president for many years. She currently volunteered at the Seven Loaves food pantry in Middleburg, which gave her much pleasure and enjoyment. She loved her co-workers and the many people she served and she will be greatly missed. She was an avid quilter and crocheter and enjoyed many different crafts. However, her true love was her family, especially her grandchildren, who she went above and beyond to care for and protect.

There will be a funeral and graveside service on Sunday, June 1, 2014, at 2:00 pm, at Antioch Baptist Church in Haymarket, VA. Arrangements are being handled by Pierce Funeral Home in Manassas, VA.
