

Alice Mary Hines

March 1, 1933 - February 17, 2025

Alice Mary Hines, 91, passed away on February 17, 2025, in Manassas, VA. Alice was born in Milwaukee, WI on March 1, 1933, to Alfred and Jeanette (Koceja) Hansen.

Alice moved to Washington, DC and worked as a secretary for the Navy and resided in a boarding house which she always loved to reminisce about. She took on many jobs throughout her life including Hecht's department store, a doctor's office, and spent many years as a secretary at the Cathedral of St. Thomas More and her most important job, raising 8 children all while receiving an associates degree from Northern Virginia Community College.

Before losing her eyesight to AMD, she was an avid reader, sewed, loved to play card & board games, travel and bake. She was a lifelong learner, devoted to her Catholic faith and always generous with those she loved. She loved to just sit and chat and reminisce.

Alice is survived by her daughters Catherine (Michael) McCarthy of NY, Laura (Ken) Fielding-Hudson of AL and Maureen (Andy) Tickle of VA, 12 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren and her sister-in-law, Illa Hansen. She was predeceased by her husband of 60 years, Leon Hines, daughters Christine Hines & Jennifer Hines and sons Mark Hines, Michael Hines & Richard Hines, her parents Jeanette & Alfred Hansen, and two brothers Robert Hansen and Alfred Hansen.
