“ Our heart and prayers go out to Roxanne's family and loved ones. I hold many memories close to me and always will of her and of her family. I am grateful to her for that. I long missed her smile and love for life since I moved away. I shared a great friendship with her and I am thankful and the better for it. My condolences to those that I cannot be there with to share in this sorrow. God Bless...Karin and Adam Clatterbuck
