“ Alan, I always knew what great accomplishments you were making from your dad. He would call me to let me know where you were or what rank you had made. The excitement in his voice let me know how proud he was of you. I will always remember the day you drove up at dad's in the camo H1 hummer. I am so sorry you did not finish your dream to be the best soldier the ARMY ever had. Thank you for serving our country and making sure we have freedom.

“ Son, to salute you when you arrived home on the plane was truly one of the most amazing sites that I have ever witnessed and was a part of. I am truly thankful to have been a part of only one of many miracles that you took place in. Always in my heart and soul. Love, Mom.

just wanted to say you son was a good friend of mine, and i just heard the news. We both lost contact over the years since high-school as i went into the USMC and he went to the Army. I still remember early middle school when me and Allen both decided to get into wrestling at Floyd T. Binns, and some funny memory's of us fishing and trying to wrestling each other in the Patomac River down at my grandfathers. He will be in my prayers.
