“ I met Amanda, through Patrick while working at Ethan Allen. I was pregnant with my second child and her eyes sparkled when she saw my big belly! She was always so kind and compassionate, but most of all - very loved. As a parent, I cannot imagine the pain you are going through and my husband and I send our sincere condolences to your entire family. How many beautiful memories you must have. Our love, Susan and Jason Morris

“ While I never taught Amanda, I remember Amanda's time at Osbourn because she brought such light to the school. To my former student Nicole, I am praying for you and your entire family as you grieve the loss of such a tremendously loved family member and celebrate the things that made Amanda so special. There are no words to console in such a tragedy, but I pray that you are sustained by your faith and by each other.

“ Many wonder when sickness and death will be done away with. Revelation 21:3,4 holds out a comforting hope.
