“ As the father of 4 I can only imagine your pain. Amanda was a beautiful creature and she will be missed. I remember coming home after a long day at work. Amanda had just moved in. Her garage door was open and she was sitting in there talking on her cell phone. As I walked up to my door she jumped up and made her way to me. ?Hi! I?m Amanda! I?m your new neighbor!? Wow! How impressive. She won me over right there. My oldest daughter is 21. I can only hope that she is as lovely and personable as Amanda was.

God bless you. Our prayers are with you.

“ Amanda was a student of mine, I was her colorguard instructor at Park View Highschool. During the time I knew her she was such a bright spirit. She was always sassy and upbeat. I wish the family of her good memories at this time.
