

Amar Jit Lal

May 10, 1950 - June 14, 2022

Mr. Amar J. Lal age 72, passed away peacefully on June 14th, 2022, at Reston Hospital with his family by his side.

Amar was born on May 10th, 1950, in Punjab, India to Shri Bhagat Ram and Smt. Dhano Devi. In 1972, Amar was happily married to Lajwant Lal who was his partner in life for 51 years.

Mr. Amar Lal moved to Arlington, VA from India in 1982. Mr. Lal worked diligently for many years in various jobs in order to support his family. In 2006, Mr. Lal became a successful business owner which he continued to run with the help of his family.

Mr. Amar Lal was a devoted husband and father who always reached out to others and provided help where needed. He was a religious man and was involved in many activities including singing bhajans (spiritual songs) in the Amar Jyoti Jagran Mandali for over 40 years. Mr. Lal loved being in the company of family and friends and had a passion for cooking, singing, gardening, and watching cricket and soccer.

Due to his ethics and family-oriented nature, he was able to raise a wonderful family. Mr. Amar Lal is survived by his wife, two sons, one daughter, one son-in-law, two daughters-in-law, and five grandchildren. He had a gravitating personality that brought together everyone he met.

Mr. Lal will be remembered for his hard work to always provide for his family, his giving and loving nature towards all and his unconditional religious devotion.

Family and friends are invited to a Celebration of Life gathering on June 16th from 9-11AM in Manassas, VA at the Pierce Funeral Home.
