

Amelia Gilreath

April 7, 1929 - December 23, 2003

AMELIA "AMY" CLELAND GILREATH, age 74, passed on Tuesday, December 23, 2003.

She was Past National Chariman, DAR Patriot Index, Daughters of the American Revolution; Managing Editor Centennial Edition DAR Patriot Index; Real Granddaughter, United Daughters of the Confederacy and a member, National League of American Pen Women. Mrs. Gilreath was the author of 26 books on Genealogy Research.

Survivors include her loving husband of 44 years, Stanley N. Gilreath, two sons, John Stephen Gilreath and James Richard Gilreath, one sister, Jane Cleland Collins and one brother, Franklin Edison Cleland.

Services and interment were private with arrangements by Price Funeral Home, Manassas.

Condolences may be sent to www.pricefh.com.

Tribute Wall

AR

“ The loss of Amy will be felt by many. Amy was so generous and helped often with her "Jenkins" family research contributions. Heart felt sympathy so all of her family at this time. Anne

Anne Rupert - March 29, 2013 at 02:05 PM

SE

“ Many of us have greatly benefited from the valuable books Amy wrote. I am so sorry for your loss.

Shirley Edillon - March 29, 2013 at 02:05 PM

RJ

“ Amy was a special person. I will miss her emails and sharing of news of her genealogy work. She was of great help in my own genealogy research. Although we never met in person, we were cousins through the Jenkins family. Her father, Belton, was the half-brother of my grandmother. Lillian Butler Jones. Belton's and Lillian's mother was Harriet Jenkins Cleland Butler.

Robbie Jones - March 29, 2013 at 02:05 PM

“ We will always remember working with Amy in the party and our friendship with you.

We share with you the distress of losing her.

December 31, 2003 at 12:00 AM