“ Charlie, Will, and family, I was deeply saddened to hear of Amy's passing! I thought so much of the amazing support she and her sister, Joan, provided to the students and families in PWC Schools. Her love of family and life was always evident. In fact, I bet if you go to the old Marsteller building you can still hear her laughter ringing in the hallway.

With deepest sympathy,

“ To all of the Week's family and the children of Joan Tuthill: We are so sorry for your loss.

We had not seen Amy for many years so seeing this picture made came as a surprise to us, she looks so much like Joan. Amy's smile tells it all, she was indeed a beautiful person and helpful to many people. You all will be in our prayers as you go through this difficult time. May God bless all of you.

“ Amy worked with my late wife Jeri and I for many years. She was a good co-worker and knew many people. She grieved with me my wife's death and was very supportive. Amy's keen sense of humor could lighten most situation and make you feel comfortable. Always ready to help. I am glad I had the opportunity to know her.

“ I know you as a loving wife, mother, grandmother, mother-in-law that loved life! As a Christian, Amy was always ready to share her faith and offer praise to her heavenly father from whom all blessings flow! I trust that Jesus has already welcomed you with open arms and while you will be missed by many, we take solace in knowing that you are with your Savior tonight!

We all look forward to that grand reunion, that we will enjoy with one another, as we are called home to spend eternity offering praise to our beloved Savior! We will do the best we can do to help Charles, Charlie , Will and families begin the healing process with prayer as we remember you fondly!

“ To the family of Mrs. Amy Weeks, my deepest condolences goes out to you all. If it were not for her I would have never graduated high school, I would have never have been able to walk across that stage. Having a child at 14 and another at 16 Mrs. Weeks always had faith in me that I would make it, that I would be a successful "teenage mother" I graduated in 2006 from Osborne Park High School I only got to see Mrs. Weeks once after that, I had planned on visiting her about a year and a half ago when I had come back home from S.C so I had got in contact with her after calling OP and they sent out the message to her and she called me we talked for about 2 hours and I will always remember she was still so very proud of me and all I had overcome with being a teenage mother. I will always keep her close to my heart & remember all the faith she had in me. It breaks my heart to find this out, and even more so that I won't make it to the viewing or funeral. I will be thinking and praying for all of her family and friends. God has truly received one of the best angels. May you R.I.P Mrs. Weeks, your work on earth was wonderfully done. 😭💔💔💔

“ I was so sorry to learn yesterday of Amy's death. It was just a couple months that a friend had told me that she was suffering from breast cancer. I had every intention of calling her, but as we do in life, I let the moment pass by and never called. I am so sorry that I didn't call and let the opportunity pass. I worked with both Amy and her sister Joan as an attendance officer for many years. Both gals could light up a room with their laughter and good humor. We shared many a laugh (and gripe session) over the years. Amy will be missed and I send my condolences to Charles and her family.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. It was a blessing to have known Amy and to have worked with her for many years. Amy was truly an awesome lady! I will never forget her and all the laughs we had together, the life experiences we shared, the love she had for her family and friends. Amy was the epitome of class. She is sleeping in the arms of angels now with her sister who I also knew for many years. Amy will be deeply missed by many.

“ Dear Charles, Charlie, Will and families,
My heart aches for your great loss, and while I know that Amy enjoyed life to the fullest and didn't want to leave you whom she loved so dearly, I know she is now experiencing complete joy in Heaven. I heard her say several times while she battled cancer, that she was in a win-win situation because she knew that she would be healed and win that great battle either way, whether on this earth or in Heaven. She has won the battle and is now rewarded!
I miss my dear friend very much. The picture I have of her in my mind will always be of her laughing and loving life. My prayers and love are with you all.

“ Charles, Charlie, Will and families. I wish I had words to express my sorrow for all of you. I will always remember "Uncle" Amy as someone who enjoyed living to the fullest. She loved her family, laughed a lot and faced adversary with grace and dignity. My prayers for God's love and peace to keep you all.
