

Angela Hepzibeth Blaine

September 12, 1956 - February 8, 2025

Angela Hepzibeth Morrison was born to parents Randolph Fitzgerald Morrison and Mary Archie, on the 12th September 1956.

Angela was very jovial, funny, polite and matter of fact. She demonstrated a love for music at an early age and mastered playing a musical instrument--the piano for the Lambeau church of God where she also committed her life to christ at a very early age and participated in church Leadership.

At Lambeau Church of God, she was the music director and pianist for the church in the 1970's and was instrumental in preparing the Lambeau Church of God choir for annual conventions where she led the choir to victory several times in her tenure. She was a member of the 'Crusades for 'Christ group'9 where they missioned in the Island of St. Vincent on a soul saving venture winning souls for Christ

-School and professional life-

Angela attended Nursery school at 'Teacher Dorothy Nursery School' -a well renowned instructional facility- for early childhood education.

Next, she attended Lambeau EC Primary School where she graduated and acquired her school-leaving certificate.

For higher education, she attended Tobago polytechnic School of Commerce

AKA, "Guy's school of business". There she mastered the commercial arts of Shorthand writing, and Speed Typing.

Angela worked briefly as a manager at Gordon Grant Hardware Retail Store in Tobago for a couple years before leaving her native Island of Trinidad and Tobago to pursue higher education in the United States of America in 1979. Angela was nicknamed, Madam Speaky, Spokey, for her enunciation of words beginning with "WH":- (for e.g. she would say , "When, Where, Why, and What." which engendered laughter to all who heard her.

For more higher learning, Angela attended Fordham University where she obtained her BA in Business Administration. Angela then pursued a career in Banking for many years and worked as a loan officer and mortgage underwriter for 'World Savings Bank' until she retired in 2017

Latter Years:-

Angela married Michael Blaine the love of her life on 9/8/2001.

Angela was a kindred spirit, kind-hearted and very free handed. She possessed a love for family and friends and loved to lend a helping hand to many in need. She loved catering, pastry making, celebrating, home parties, gardening, and interior decorating.

Upon her retirement her goal was to do missionary work with her husband spreading the good news of salvation to many souls near and far.

Angela was overcome by a series of illnesses to which her body eventually succumbed causing her to leave us quite soon on Saturday February 8th 2025.
