“ Angie was my best friend since high school and working at The Texas Roadhouse in Clarksburg. We also went to Fairmont State together and I remember having medical terminology class with her and one time we both forgot to study for a quiz we both went back to the parking lot and crammed for it in about ten minutes and when we both got back to class the teacher looking at us both asked if we were ready for the quiz and about that time our cheat sheet fell out and then the teacher cancelled the quiz until next time we both had the class lol. Angie was the type of person that she would look out for you especially if you had a big heart and she would make you feel 100 better automatically just with her smile. She is going to be missed so much and I know she is looking down for us to be there for each other and her beloved family ❤️. Hollie Amanda Frame

“ My deepest condolences to the family at this difficult time. I hope the words at Rev.21:4 bring you comfort. It says: "God will wipe out every tear from their eyes,and death will be no more,neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.”

Tuiti, it is time for your soul to soar, for your feet to dance on the face of the moon with Pop-Pop, and your smile to light the universe as it once did our lives. I will miss you forever, but know you live on in your children and grandchildren. I promise to keep in touch with them and to help them whenever and however I can. Until we meet again my beloved niece, please visit me in my dreams. Love you more than the stars above, Aunt Beth XOXO

“ We are truly suffering an unimaginable loss. We lost an amazing person who lived to serve others. I’ve lost my mom, a best friend, my biggest fan. My grandson was her world and now he doesn’t get to grow up with the amazing person that she is, but I will be sure he knows how much his nana loved him. I will make sure she lives on through us and will cherish each and every memory. I love her more than she could ever know and appreciated every step she held my hand through in this life. You may Rest In Peace now mom, no more stress or worry in your life.
