“ Dear family of Anita:

My deepest heartfelt sympathy at the loss of your wonderful mother. Anita was my friend and manager for seven years. She was someone to look up to and admire. Mom was an inspiration to all who knew her and the health battles she fought and won.

I tried to call her at least twice a month and chat after I left Marywood and especially after she retired. We shared many wonderful memories which I will always cherish.

“ Sorry to hear of your loss. My sympathy goes out to each of the boys and their families as well as to Dorothy Johnson and family. When we first moved to Manassas Anita and Tom were a very important part of my families' life as she baby sat my daughter. I will always remember how well she took care of her and the many special things she sewed for her.
