

Ann Louise Bullock (Beni)

October 19, 1950 - September 25, 2025

Ann Louise (Beni) Bullock, 74, went home to be with her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on September 25, 2025. She passed peacefully, surrounded by love.

Ann was born on October 19, 1950, in Washington, D.C., to the late Henry and Anna (Ormsbee)

Beni. She graduated from Stonewall Jackson High School in Manassas, Virginia, in 1969, and went on to lead a distinguished 36-year career with the Central Intelligence Agency, retiring in 2006.

Ann's life was marked by devotion—to her faith, her family, her work, and her friendships. She is survived by her loving son, Brian Bullock, and his wife, Julie; and her devoted sister, Martha Bullock.

In retirement, Ann found joy in reconnecting with lifelong friends, including former CIA colleagues and classmates from Stonewall Jackson High. She cherished time spent with her family and embraced every opportunity to love and encourage those around her.

Her warmth, strength, and unwavering faith will be deeply missed by all who knew her.

We were classmates @ SJHS and had Shorthand class together. She was probably the best stenographer in our class and we both went to work for CIA after graduation. She was sweet & kind. So sorry for your loss.

My deepest sympathy. I graduated with Anne in 1969 from SJH. I liked her very much. We found each other on Facebook and had occasional updates. Ann was a very quiet and loving person.
