“ A truly lovely lady. She taught me more than I can ever share. She is my Godmother, and I know she is watching out for me now with my Godfather and God. Love her dearly, always! I will miss our weekly talks.

My beautiful Aunt became my friend and confident as I matured. She was my bike buddy. We shared life's experiences for hours as I pedaled down the street. She gave advice freely and was very wise. I will miss her terribly. She was not only my Aunt, she was my friend. I believe she is happy now reunited with my uncle John, her love. ❤️

My Confirmation Godmother is a lady filled with wisdom and compassion who has guided me through life's ups and downs. She became my girlfriend and confident as we shared many funny family stories. I can still hear her comforting laugh. Her longing to be with her husband has finally arrived as God rejoins them together forever.

My first cousin Anna was a caring, thoughtful, kind, and loving friend and cousin. She always called to say hello and chit-chat for a while. Anna freely shared her wisdom about life and how to negotiate its trial and tribulations. She had a unique kindness that was always comforting and pleasant. I am certain that she is resting in peace with her beloved John. +Requiecat in pace et lux perpetua luceat ea. Cousins Robert, Angela, and Family.
