October 25, 1941 - September 9, 2024

Ann Theresa Johnson (Nancy) of Gainesville, VA passed away peacefully on September 9th, 2024, surrounded with the love of her family at her side.

Born in Philadelphia, PA on October 18th, 1941 to Edward and Margaret Miller, Nancy is survived by her loving husband of 64 years, John Johnson, her three sons; John Johnson Jr and wife Jenny, David Johnson and wife Sabrina Jess, and Michael Johnson, as well as five grandchildren that she adored; Andrew and Emily Johnson, Kayla Young, and Emmeline and Dexter Jess-Johnson.

Nancy was the last surviving member of the Miller family. She is preceded in death by her eleven brothers and sisters; Billy, Eddie, Tommy, Jimmy, Joe, Johnny, Bobby, Rose, Betty, Mary, and Peggy.

Nancy graduated from West Catholic Girls High School in 1959, and shortly after worked as a private secretary for Firestone Tire and Rubber Company.

In the Fall of 1959, she met the love of her life at a dance. They were married a year later on November 5th, 1960. John and Nancy loved to dance and party. Nancy's claim to fame was as a dancer on Dick Clark's American Bandstand.

In 1971, John and Nancy opened a service station which brought them from the city of Philadelphia to Manassas, Virginia or, as Nancy called it, “the country”.

Nancy was an avid bowler. She joined several leagues and bowled at least three days a week. She also enjoyed playing Bingo. She later discovered a love for golf and the friendships that it brought. She and John even started a Sunday night couples league at Heritage Hunt that continues today.

Nancy will be deeply missed and forever remembered in the hearts of her family and friends.

“ You were my first sister-in-law, so with three older brothers, that made you my first sister. I will miss you, but I know you are in a better place. Thank you for loving my brother for almost 64 years and for sharing yourself with the rest of the family. I love your 3 sons as if they were my own. Your sister forever, Diana
