“ My name is Donna Sanchez. I only learned of Ann's passing. She and Stan were very good friends of mine. When I moved to Bristol Va. I lost touch. I cleaned their house for them for about two years and I worked with Stan when he was employed by Prince William County Government. I worked with him at the courthouse. I'm very saddened of hearing of their passing. They were two wonderful people and I loved them dearly. I'm very sorry to have lost touch ,but I thought of them often through the years.
