Ann was a devoted and loving wife of 50 years to Bill, a kind loyal, generous, and compassionate friend. In addition to her husband Bill, she is also survived by two nephews and their spouses, William H & Celia Blakemore, and Jeffery & Lynn Blakemore.

She was a lover of nature, Spring was her favorite time of the year, she loved flowers, birds, bunny rabbits and butterflies.

It was the little things in life that gave her the most Joy. Ann never knew a stranger she would smile and say hallo to everyone she met. There will never be another Ann, she will be missed deeply by all who knew her.

Now over the rainbow
Where Ann so longed to be
Where dreams really do come
True and blue birds fly

“ *Sending love to you Bill.
The world lost a class act when Ann passed. She was beautiful inside and out. Ann was kind, well mannered and so sweet to all the Connelly children. She will always be remembered with love. Fair winds Ann. You are a part of my life always. The memories I have of you are treasures now and I cherish them. God bless you Bill. May He give you comfort.*

I will forever treasure our time together when I was younger. The times we sat in the sun together, just talking and enjoying the long sunny days are memories I will always cherish. Your friendship to a confused and scared young girl was so appreciated and helpful. She listened and understood so much of the conflict I was going through. She will be missed. May God guide you through this time, Bill. Sending lots of love.
