"To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:

A time to be born, and a time to die;

A time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;

A time to kill, and a time to heal;

A time to break down, and a time to build up;

A time to weep, and a time to laugh;

A time to mourn, and a time to dance;
A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together;
A time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;
A time to get, and a time to lose;
A time to keep, and a time to cast away;
A time to rend, and a time to sew;
A time to keep silence, and a time to speak;
A time to love, and a time to hate;
A time of war, and a time of peace."
(Ecclesiastes 3:1-8)

To Charles and Cheryl.... my sincerest condolences to you with the passing of your mom. I truly understand what you are going through at this time. I was blessed to get to see your mom a couple of years ago when I was canvassing the neighborhood about all of the construction in the area. I was really touched that she remembered me. I will always remember her as a real lady.
