“ We didn't get to visit often when I was young, but I remember she had the warmest hugs. Was still true when I last hugged her at Uncle Joes memorial service.

“ My first vivid memory of Aunt Anne was when I was about 4 years old. My dad, her oldest brother Peter, had taken me to stay with her and Uncle Leedy while my mom was in the hospital. Her kindness, love and warmth made me feel so special. I remember not wanting to go home when it was time! Over the many years of family gatherings, she kept us all close together with her amazing traditional Italian food and fun. We will all miss her in so many ways. Prayers for Kevin and Leanne, and their families!

“ The day I met Anne, Leedy had brought to our house to introduce her and let us know they were getting married. I know my family loved her from then on. My grandfather Richard loved to talk with her and said she had the prettiest smile. As a young girl I thought she and Leedy were the perfect couple and adored seeing them together. After moving back to the east coast my husband and I saw them both at family reunions and loved sharing family stories. I still saw the same perfect couple who loved each other the same. I will miss my emails with her, but I know she will be happy reunited with her love. My thoughts and prayers for Kevin and Leanne and their families. We will miss this wonderful and beautiful lady. Rest in God's arms Anne, you are going home.
