“ Sis. Annette was a dear soul that will truly be missed dearly. Though we didn't know you for very long we knew that you had a wonderful spirit about you that blessed everyone that come in contact with you. You raised and nurtured a wonderful family of which I know you were proud of in a glorious way. Rest in our Lord now until we meet again!

“ Bruce you & your family have been in my prayers since Karen told of Annette's illness at Greg's service. I will try to make it to Nolesville, but I cannot promise I will be able to make it. The church office where I work doesn't close until 3:00 & on Friday's I am the only one here.
Hold onto the good memories, cherish the love the two of you shared, draw on your faith & know she is in a better place.
Love you, Peggy.

“ My favorite memory of Mrs. Wickliff is when we got to stay with you all in Washington, D. C. with Nikki. I remember I used to be afraid of dogs until Mrs. Wickliff helped me get to know Nikki. I am happy to know that Mrs. Wickliff is in heaven and someday we'll all be together.
