“ Mrs. Uhler, you will be greatly missed! I still find it hard to believe. I remember just a couple months ago you were preparing me and my classmates for state boards. I still have the voicemail from when you called to tell me I passed. You were so sweet, and always smiling. I thank you so much for all that you have done. Rest in Paradise Mama Uhlez

“ We were so sad to hear of Annie's passing. She was a good neighbor and a lovely wife and life partner to Bedford. I will always remember the last time I saw her at the Bull Run Ladies' luncheon when I asked her to tell us how she met Bedford. I wish I had written it down, because it was a sweet and romantic memory that her family would have had while missing her, and reflected how God brings wonderful people together to share the time he has given us on earth. Annie was easy to know and though so talented and beautiful, she was a warm hearted country girl at heart, and an exemplary Christ follower. We are happy for her that she is in Heaven and has met the Lord and reunited with so many who have gone before her to God's paradise. Bedford and all of her family and friends are in our prayers at this difficult time.

“Annie and Bedford were our close neighbors and friends for many years. We enjoyed our fellowship during our home visits, walks, dinners, discussions and by spending much time together through the years laughing and praising God together. We prayed often for our family and friends and we spent time to listen and to encourage each another, too. Our most important prayers were asking God to save our family members. Sometimes Annie and Bedford brought us copies of their favorite books like, "Heaven is so Real," to share with us the glorious place that heaven was going to be. They knew that it would be just so beautiful there. Both of them REALLY wanted us to know that significant and proven fact!

Annie's love for life, her family, her work, her students, her friends and everything Godly was her personal gift and it will remain a life-giving hope to every one of us who knew her. She shared the Scriptures from the Bible and had memorized them in order to share that light with others.

We thank God for both her and Bedford because they were like a sister and a brother to us. May our Lord Jesus Christ be with us during this time of remembrance as we honor Annie. May each of us receive the comfort that only the Scriptures and the Holy Spirit can give to us. May we be able to share the truth, light and hope of eternal life daily, as well.

Love always, Mona and Bob White

You inspired me to be the cosmetologist I am today! I always told people about my aunt that taught cosmetology! You would tell me about all your shows and competitions that you always looked forward to next. It made me feel like when the years went by and we were apart I learned from you! You shared so many stories with my husband and I about my dad and when I was young and I will cherish that forever! I love you !

“ I loved you Always saying I was born on your birthday so I was your present, we loved our summer visits so much, always having our late night talks and eating and laughing around the table.....the later it got the sillier we were! Aunt Dorothy would laugh right along with us....loved all your stories of when you all were little....we always said it was like having Daddy here for the time you were here.....I loved you always calling on "our" birthday and singing to me! You saying ", you can text me....I know how to do that you know"....and we did.....so many things we did alike....I loved you always.....

“ I remember needing a gown for a dance she gave me one. It was beautiful. She came for all our baby showers. She just recently helped me with a situation but her hug she gave and her smile that night was priceless and will always remain in my heart. She was a beautiful person and even though some might think that divorce separates but in her heart family remains family that's what I love the most. Love you Aunt Annie Mae

“ You may be gone but you will never be forgotten, you were always the one in the family that always seen the good in everyone, never had a bad thing to say about anyone and always were there when anyone needed anything. I will always remember your laugh, your smile and your kind heart. Love you for ever and a day.
