

Antonio Evaristo Sanches Bravo

March 18, 1943 - May 9, 2022

Antonio Evaristo Sanches Bravo (March 18, 1943—May 9, 2022)

Antonio Evaristo, affectionately known as “Tony,” was a kind and joyful man, quick to laugh and happy to cook and eat with his family. He was born a proud Filipino who eventually became a proud citizen of America, too. He defended the Catholic Faith and Church as a Fourth Degree Knight of Columbus. He is survived by nine brothers and sisters (Genevieve, Joaquin, Francisco, Nicolas, Carolina, Mario, Natividad, Conrado, and Jacinto), three children (Melquiades Salvador, Mary Catherine, and Valarie Christine), three grandchildren (Donald, James, and Christian), and his wife Felicitas who always went to bed holding his hand or holding him.
