“ When remembering Bucky, the predominant thing that comes to everyone's mind is his kindness. He made the world a better place and was a shining example of true honor, integrity, and love. He was a devoted family man and the hardest worker I ever knew. He was so proud of his family and was always happy to celebrate their triumphs and to lend support in trials. I've never heard him raise his voice, say a negative thing about anyone, or fail to see the good in us all. He was the best husband, father, father-in-law, and PawPaw that anyone could ever hope for. It's hard to imagine this world without him, but I'm sure he is lighting up heaven with his bright smile and beautiful blue eyes. He will be sorely missed.

He used to make those on our birthday. I never see one that I don't think of him.
