

Arthur Lloyd Embrey

September 15, 1943 - September 15, 2025

In loving memory of Arthur Lloyd Embrey, a good man who was born in 1943 and lived a life filled with love, hard work, and quiet strength. Art was a devoted husband, loving father, brother and proud grandfather.

Art was the beloved husband of Christine Ann Embrey, and while we grieve his loss, we also find peace in knowing they are now reunited.

Art leaves behind a legacy not measured in material things, but in people. He is survived by his daughter Lisa Dawn Hufford, and two sons David Shawn Embrey and Jonathan Lloyd Embrey.

Art taught us what truly matters: kindness, honesty, and family. Dad was a man of quiet strength. He didn't need to be the loudest in the room; his presence alone gave comfort, steadiness, and wisdom. He led by example—through his actions, his work ethic, and the deep devotion he had to his family.

He was more than a father, he was a teacher, a protector, and often the calm in the storm. Whether he was fixing something that seemed impossible, giving advice when we needed direction, or just sitting beside us in silence, we always knew we were safe with him.

He is survived by eight grandchildren and great granddaughter who adored him and who will carry forward the lessons and love he gave so freely. Each of them is a living reminder of his humor, his patience, and his big heart.

Though Art is gone, his love will always stay with us. We will carry his memory in our hearts and see pieces of him in every generation that follows.

Rest in peace, Dad. We love you, and we'll never forget you.
