“ I met art when he came to Virginia I was employed ed by Westinghouse electric company. I'm thinking it was about 1965 but 60 years is a long time to have a sharp memory the thing I remember most was his humorous style and particularly when some would question his last name. He would always say “moo” as in cow and “sally as in sally. We dated for a bit and he invited me to have dinner with his mom when she visited in Virginia. She prepared an authentic Lebonese meal which was absolutely amazing. We went most Friday nights to eat crabs in Baltimore with his sisters (I think??). Around this time he bought a Pontiac? Convertible he liked that car a lot. It was fun.we were friends but nothing more. I want to extend my condolences to his wife and family. He was a great guy and good friend. As a native Washingtonian it was my job to show him the sights. I married and moved to South Carolina. We lost contact but he came to me in a dream recently so I decided to look him up. And here I am. I hope I'm not intruding on your space.

“ Ellen,
I have never really done anything like this....post a personal message of love on a public board, but I do want you to know that Grace Loesel is making her best effort to offer prayers of consolation for you and your family. May our Blessed Mother, wrap her mantle of compassion around your entire family this Christmas season, and may she extend her gentle hand to welcome Art as he passes into his eternal rest. Jesus, we trust in You!
With much love and affection,
Margi Loesel on behalf of Grace
