“ I do not even know where to start. Grandma you were always there for me. You are my rock. I can remember living with you when I was in 3rd grade to finish school. You had a birthday party for me when I was in 2nd grade. You were the manager of the dance studio I attended. I so enjoyed fishing, playing games, The Pink Palace, the zoo, amusement parks, the circus, or just being with you. I can remember all the long phone conversations we shared. You were there for my first wedding, the birth of my first child, came to visit you in the summer and on Christmas. You would read me "The Little Engine That Could" and sing songs like "The Rubber Tree Plant" and "Fuzzy Wuzzy". You made life wonderful. You had the most amazing sense of humor no matter how much pain you were in. The most giving and nurturing soul. I am going to miss you soooooooo bad. You are going to be forever in my heart. Save a place for me in heaven so we can play again. I know God is going to be up there laughing and smiling now at how funny you are. I wish you peace and I love you. Thinking of you every second of everyday.
